

BEAUTY OF A LIE

(Music/Lyrics – Filippou Papakyriakou)

It's really strange how a sincere smile can make you feel alive again It's really strange the beauty of a lie Something you may never have

What can I say, you live inside my heart you are the thought into my darkest nights you are a dream I hold into my hands and I'll never let it go

Baby tonight I wish that you were here into my arms, whispering in my ear An angel can be real
