

ECHOES IN THE SHADOWS

(Music/Lyrics – Filippou Papakyriakou)

Years went by Thousands of memories haunt my mind Wondering why so much depression within a short life day by day the

Madness turns to sadness
screaming for an end Hating all that you've loved

All those friends flee there is nowhere you can count time goes slow facing the isolation in this world
day by day the

Hating all that you've loved
Hiding, crying, learning
All that has left from me
Echoes in the shadows
