

ENDLESS FLIGHT

(Music - Filippou Papakyriakou, Lyrics - Filippou Papakyriakou/Jon Soti)

Under the sun
mankind cries for our creations
All we have done
lead our world to its damnation

Fires of hate surrounding the nature
Our childish dreams have now turned to ash
People continuously hurting each other
Love is gone

Riding through sunrise, above the sky
Hanging with passions and fears yet unseen
Endlessly flying, no light to see
Why are we here?

Screams full of tears
The saddest words I've ever heard
Crawling for years
In a sea of broken wings

Watching a kid crying, dying in sickness
Give him one chance to ride the wind
Still we have time to ask for forgiveness
To be free

Riding through sunrise, above the sky
Hanging with passions and fears yet unseen
Endlessly flying, no light to see
Why are we here?
