

POINT OF NO RETURN

(Music/Lyrics – Filippou Papakyriakou)

Can't you see?
can't you feel the world is changing?
Rising scream cracking the silence Look at me tell me is this the road you've chosen?
Broken dream
I wish that it could be real

Silently, whispering, flying away Before my life starts to fade once again

Now just take my hand to the point of no return I'm sick of dreaming in vain for so long I'm gonna change for you for all that I've been through you give me reason to try forever more

A sign of time
I tell you this with all my heart
You define all that is kind in me Hard to see something you have yet to feel Share with me
this journey unto the end

I will be here through the darkest of days Breaking the fears now we're facing our fates
