

WINDS OF TOMORROW

(Music – E.Poulias, F.Papakyriakou / Lyrics – F.Papakyriakou)

There are some moments in life that we can't deny
Love tearing down the walls in laughter and tears of ice

Do you see? Don't you hear?
That's the sound of perfection
But still is so unreal and denies you the chance to feel

The winds of tomorrow tore us forever apart
We must move past the sorrow
and hold on to what's in our hearts
Every loss, a chance for a new start

There is no reason to drown ourselves in a sea of lies
What's born on that winter night, tonight it's time to die

Do you see? Don't you feel?
That's the touch of affection
Yet it hurts all too real
Once it scars you for life can you heal?

The winds of tomorrow tore us forever apart
We must move past the sorrow
and hold on to what's in our hearts
Every loss, a chance for a new start
